

JHA accredited "ISO 9001:2000" Certification.

The Japan Hydrographic Association (JHA) is delighted to achieve the accreditation of "ISO 9001: 2000" on 31 July 2009. The accreditation covers all the JHA sections responsible for reproduction and distribution of Japanese official charts and publications, including ENC, produced and published by the Japan Coast Guard (JCG). In achieving the ISO 9001 certification, the JHA demonstrates its continuous commitment to delivering quality customer services which meet professional standard.
